

American Buffalo

March/April 2001

By David Mamet

Directed by Robert M. Rechnittz

When a buffalo-head nickel happens to be worth a pretty penny, a junkshop owner decides that it may be his ticket to easy street. From the creator of Glengarry Glen Ross comes the gripping drama of two men and their attempt to hatch an ingenious plan that just might make them a million.

